

THE DALLAS MORNING NEWS NAMES TIDEL NATIONAL STANDARD WINNER IN DALLAS/FORT WORTH FOR 2020

CARROLLTON, TEXAS - November 14, 2020 – Tidel is pleased to announce that it has been named a 2020 Top Workplace, National Standard winner by The Dallas Morning News. The list is based solely on employee feedback gathered through a third-party survey administered by employee engagement technology partner Energage, LLC. The anonymous survey uniquely measures 15 drivers of engaged cultures that are critical to the success of any organization: including alignment, execution, and connection, just to name a few.

“In times of great change, it is more important than ever to maintain a connection among employees,” said Eric Rubino, Energage CEO. “When you give your employees a voice, you come together to navigate challenges and shape your path forward based on real-time insights into what works best for your organization. The Top Workplaces program can be that positive outcome your company can rally around in the coming months to celebrate leadership and the importance of maintaining an employee-focused culture, even during challenging times.”

“We are honored to be recognized as a 2020 Top Workplace, National Standard winner in the Dallas/Fort Worth area,” said Darren Taylor, President and CEO, Tidel. “Throughout our history, we have intentionally focused on building a culture that attracts top talent and empowers our employees to achieve great things. It has been their tireless dedication to our customers’ needs that has fueled our growth and success. We remain committed to fostering a culture of innovation, inclusion, and collaboration, and ensuring all of our employees feel inspired to do their best work.”
